King Tut's Tomb: 1922 - great for all ages

You are members of Howard Carter's archaeology team. Carter has discovered what he believes is the tomb of Egyptian Pharaoh Tutankhamun. But he hasn't yet discovered the burial chamber of King Tut, and the Egyptian authorities will arrive in 60 minutes to shut down the archaeology site for good.

It's up to you and your team to uncover the secret and escape from King Tut's tomb before it is too late!

"We did King Tut's Tomb and had way more fun than I ever anticipated. I highly recommend this for anyone!" -- Guest Veronica S.

Escape From Alcatraz: 1962 - great for all ages

Alcatraz is about to see its greatest escape attempt — earlier this evening, prisoner Frank Morris successfully escaped. You can follow the clues Frank left for you, but you only have one hour before daybreak — so this is your last chance to escape! Around the cell you will find everything you need to get out, but only if you can piece together the clues left behind!

Can you Escape Alcatraz? The prison escape room Atlanta describes as just like being in a real cell! Take what you find, and escape... Time to Escape Alcatraz prison - now!

"Escape from Alcatraz was too much fun!!! I'm still hyped from the adrenaline rush!!!" — Guest Jolie M.

Al Capone's Speakeasy: 1929 - great for ages 13+

The Largest Escape Room in Georgia and Our Most Innovative Room!

You are undercover agents trying to infiltrate a speakeasy owned by the notorious gangster Al Capone. You will need to convince the bartender (played by an in-room actor) to help you find the evidence to put Capone away! Play as one of many roles — The Singer, Police Chief, The Rookie, and other immersive roles — all of which affect the game play!

SPECIAL FEATURE! All character roles come with special abilities and “side quests” which motivate the players to accomplish their own individual goals. If the team wins and all characters fulfill their side quests, the entire team gets a “golden win”! A unique and challenging opportunity not found in other escape rooms!

"This was BY FAR the best escape room I've ever done! We each had roles to play and tasks of our own to complete. The actor in the room made it 10 times better!" — Guest Kaitlyn D.
